

CALL FOR STUDENTS

Students: IIDA invites you to participate in our 8th Annual Student Mentoring Week from February 1-5, 2010. IIDA Student Members will be matched up to network with a member of the interior design industry by spending the day in their area of design practice. Students will experience first-hand the work done to create a safe, dependable and adaptable built environment. You may want to sign up with a friend, or IIDA can pair you. Every attempt will be made to assign pairs to designers in their city. Please complete the form below and submit to Michelle Kraker by December 14, 2009.
