IIDA COLLEGE OF FELLOWS
Interior Design

The candidate must provide organized and detailed documentation describing how they have been largely responsible for:

a. an outstanding body of interior design projects, or
b. the leadership in managing and directing an interior design firm that has achieved recognition for prominence and an outstanding reputation in the interior design industry, or
c. an outstanding body of products designed for the interior design profession.

Project/product design awards received from IIDA and/or other design organizations, and any other industry awards at the international, national, state, and local level are of particular interest to the Fellows Evaluation Team. The Fellows Evaluation Team will be looking for published recognition in interior design and architectural journals, relevant design publications, and recognition beyond the applicant’s immediate locale.

The candidate must include documentation of their interior design/product design expertise demonstrated through their participation on design juries, teaching, lecturing, speaking, or writing. Reference to or visibility in any national media coverage may be included. The candidate will submit five (5) significant projects/products for which they have been primarily responsible for the design work and include four (4) images of each project/product. These projects/products should demonstrate the candidate’s contributions to a better public understanding and appreciation of the interior design profession.

SUMMARY OUTLINE FOR EACH PROJECT/PRODUCT SUBMISSION
By submitting the project/product summary statements, the candidate confirms that the entries are entirely the work of the firm/individuals listed. The project/product manager will be contacted by the Fellows Evaluation Team in the event that there is some discrepancy as to the role of the candidate. Each submission should include the following:

a. Project/product name
b. Design firm/team
c. Completion date
d. Role of candidate
e. Synopsis
f. Awards received
g. Project/product manager
h. Acknowledgments in publications

SUMMARY OF PROJECT/PRODUCT IMAGES
Please include 20 separate images (five (5) projects/products, four (4) images per project/product) and identifying information for each image. If submitting projects, please label each image with the following:

a. Name of client
b. Location
c. Completion date
